Intro

If you're reading this, we're assuming you know who DAGames and its members are. If not, I'm surprised you're seeing this, but they're a gaming youtube channel who also make music about games and original works. Some of their most famous songs are Build Our Machine (a Bendy and the Ink Machine song), Get Out (a Hello Neighbour song), and, ironically, You're Mine (a Baldi's Basics song). You might also know Will from voicing Sans and several other characters in the If Undertale Was Realistic series by Smashbits. The DAGames team currently consists of Will (the original creator of the channel), Chris (Will's best friend), Sean (animator and editor) and Chrissy (manages the channel's social media accounts/PR).

DAGames has a discord fanserver that gets managed by mods, including but not limited to: Lala (Will's housemate and friend, human resources for the channel), Inutrash (Will's ex-girlfriend, PR for Will's game studio "Hammerscorn") and several others who aren't as important to this document's contents. As of right now the server is pretty much closed to new members. A lot of the evidence in this document is from that server, but a lot of it is also from Chris and Lala's servers, this will be noted alongside the evidence. Other relevant people in the evidence are Chloe (Will's ex-partner, current housemate, has featured on songs and the channel in the past), Sugi (ex-moderator), and Snowy (ex-moderator). Other people will be introduced in the evidence itself, you can recognise mods and friends of the channel by their coloured names and lack of censor: masters are red, head moderators are blue, regular moderators are yellow, and friends are green.

A drive filled with logs and recordings of the evidence and more has been created by @dagamesexposed, you can find it here. They have also posted a recording of most of the evidence, you can watch it here.

CONTENT WARNINGS

This document includes topics such as

- Loli and other NSFW (censored)
- Slurs (f-slur, n-word, etc)
- Anti-semitism and nazi-symbolism
- Racist stereotypes
- Grooming
- Stalking
- Death threats
- Talk about mental illness and suicide
- Sexual harassment

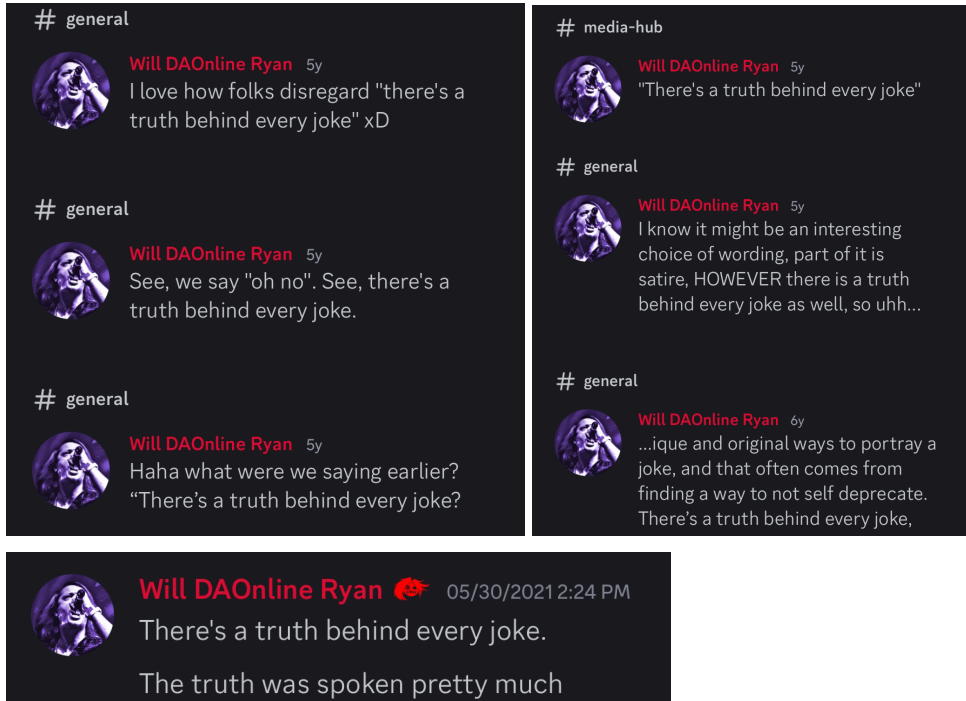

Chapters containing specific content have been labelled accordingly, except Other noteworthy things, Part 2: personal stories and Updates. These chapters contain talks about stalking, mention of grooming, sexual harassment and pedophilia (but no direct evidence of, only links to evidence), death threats, and talk about mental illness, suicide and self harm.

In this version evidence won't be censored when it comes to names and sensitive content, we however will censor any pornographic content. Some screenshots have been cropped to only leave crucial parts. This has been done sparingly and only in favour of regular server members and readability. We understand screenshots can't show everything, so feel free to search for these things in the server yourself.

Part 1: evidence

We understand that a lot of the evidence are memes/jokes, but take it from the guy himself:

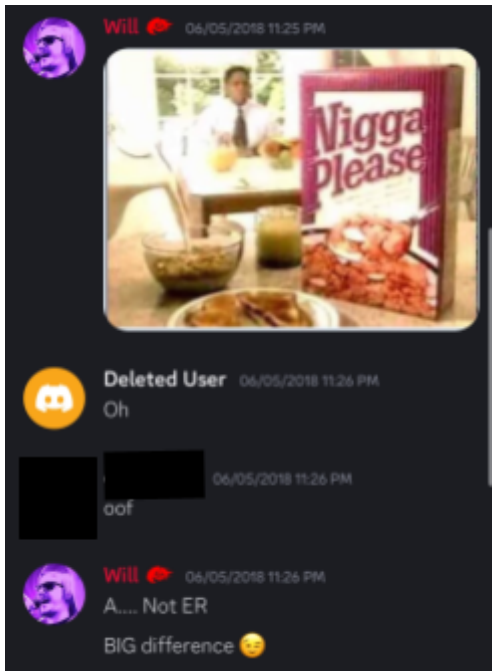

Racism, casual homophobia, antisemitism, etc

- Will saying the N word in videos

DAGames Vine Compilation at 2:37

#StoneColdChallenge \(Try Not To Laugh\) at 10:35 UNDERTALE \(NEUTRAL GENOCIDE\) EPISODE TWENTY-TWO - FINALE - DAGames at 5:07

- Will and Chris posting memes containing the N word (Chris' pos has been deleted as of october 17th 2024)

- Will's desktop is shown on stream to have a file named the N word

- Will explaining why saying the N-word is okay

DAGames @DAGamesOfficial · Jun 10, 2018 ✓

I didn't say the "er" word, I said the "a" word. To most, it's a HUGE difference, to some it isn't. It's as controversial word, but controversy doesn't really go anywhere other than just being a part of existence, so there's no good OR bad in it honestly haha.

Will 🐞 04/15/2017 7:25 PM

You may say the N word in your own rooms, you may do as you please on your own self where no one else can hear and no one else can feel offended, it's your own sanctuary... But in a public server where it's bound to hurt many people? That's really a no go

Will 🐞 04/15/2017 7:26 PM

Because we believe in freedom of speech, but in a public environment freedom of speech that isn't just handed to everyone, it's about respect, that's what give you the right to communicate. An individual personality with a unison goal.

- Will using racism as a joke

Analog Not Included! \(Playstation Classic Parody\) uses Asian stereotypes

Vine in DiamondArmada tweet uses racism as a concept as a joke

- Will using the f-word in a harmful and non-reclaiming manner (though Will is bisexual himself)

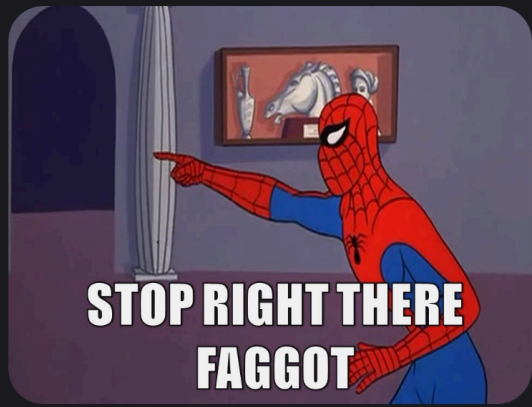

Will 🐞 09/24/2016 7:43 PM

My way of saying "faggots"

Will 🐞 05/28/2016 10:49 AM

Will 🐞 03/01/2018 11:43 PM

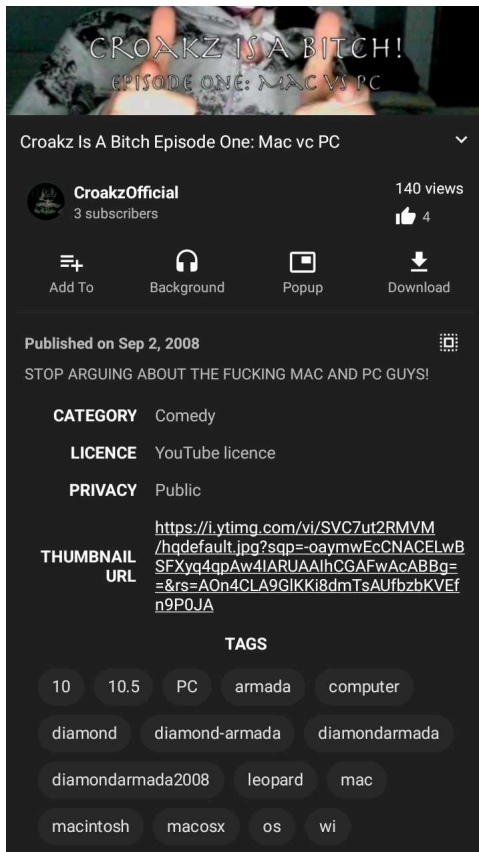

I yelled faggot instead if that helps :3

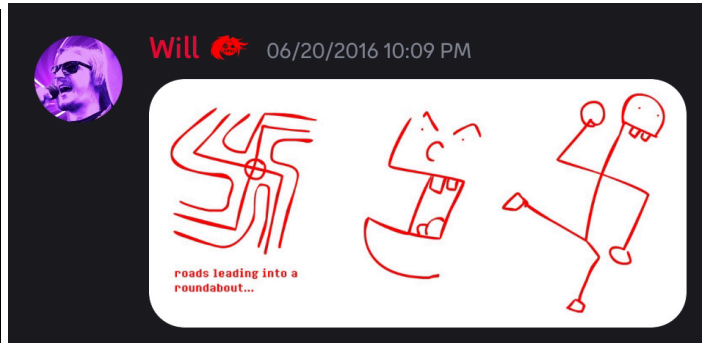

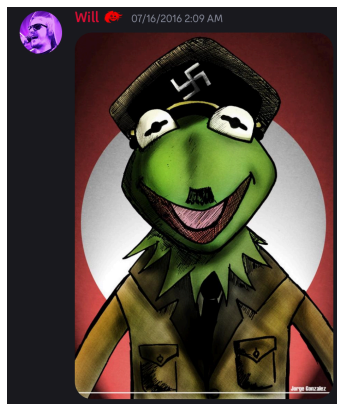

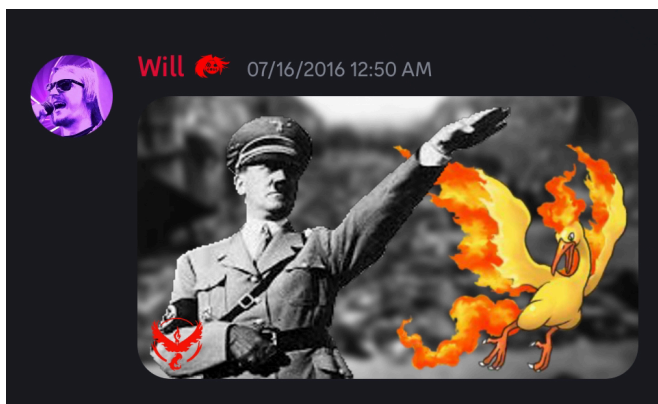

Will 🐞 09/10/2018 5:17 PM

No Stacey, they're being faggots

An old video on allegedly an old channel of Will where he also says the f-slur. It's tagged with Diamond Armada as seen below, so it's fair to assume it is Will, considering his voice and mannerisms.

- Casual usage of nazi symbolism in a logo and jokes/memes

- Antisemitism is the joke (screenshot taken on september 5th 2023 in Lala's server)

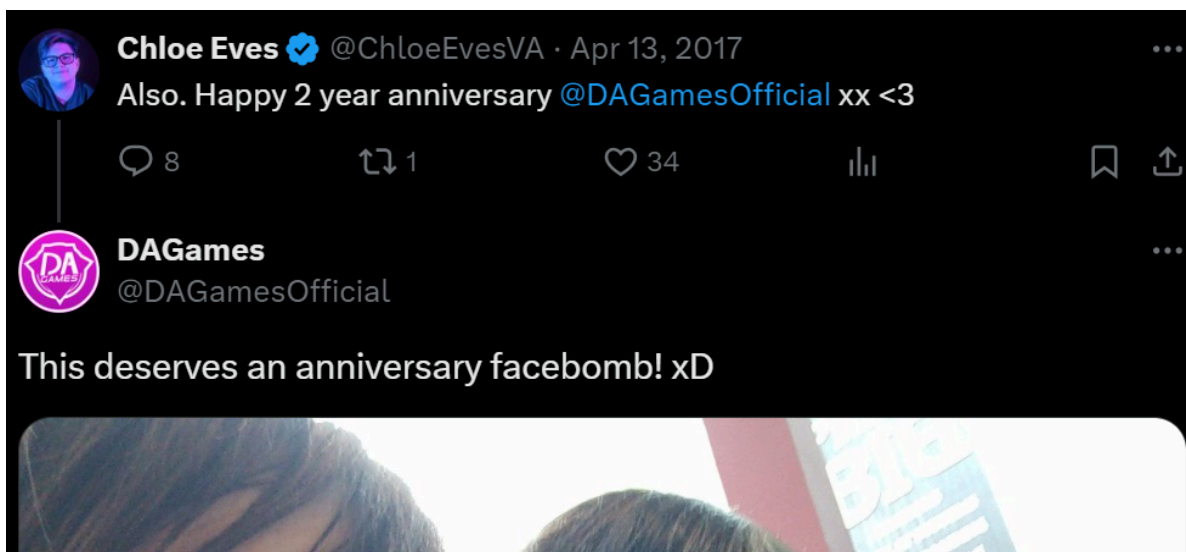

Proof of most of these actually being posted from Will and Chris' accounts can be found here.

NSFW/loli/predation

"In the UK, it is illegal for anyone (regardless of age) to own or share sexually explicit images of anyone under the age of 18, both fictional and non-fictional." - CPS

"In the UK, the Coroners and Justice Act 2009 (Which took effect in April 2010), made the possession of fictional pornography involving minors illegal. This Acts provisions only apply in Wales, England, and Northern Ireland, but do not apply in Scotland. The exact provision states "criminalizing possession of cartoon pornographic images depicting both minors as well as adults where the "predominant impression conveyed" is that the individual (being depicted), is that of a child" - Coroners and Justice Act 2009
Chapter Two, Part Two: Images of Children

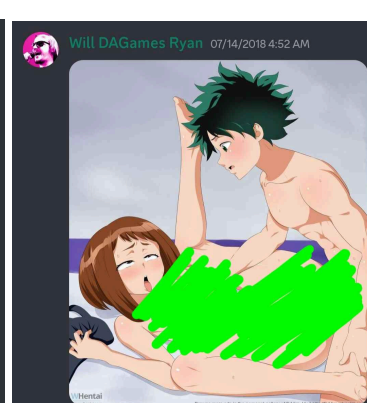

- Will started dating Chloe when they were 17. Chloe's birthday is on September 3rd 1997, this twitter screenshot of their 2 year anniversary shows that they officially started dating when Chloe was 17 and Will was 23 (birthday april 29th 1992). It's very likely Will was interested in them before they made it official, but we can't say much about that. Older screenshots of Will mentioning their relationship are also included below. Screen recordings of more tweets including these can be found here.

The oldest mention of Chloe is from May 20th 2015. It's unclear if they were unofficially dating here.

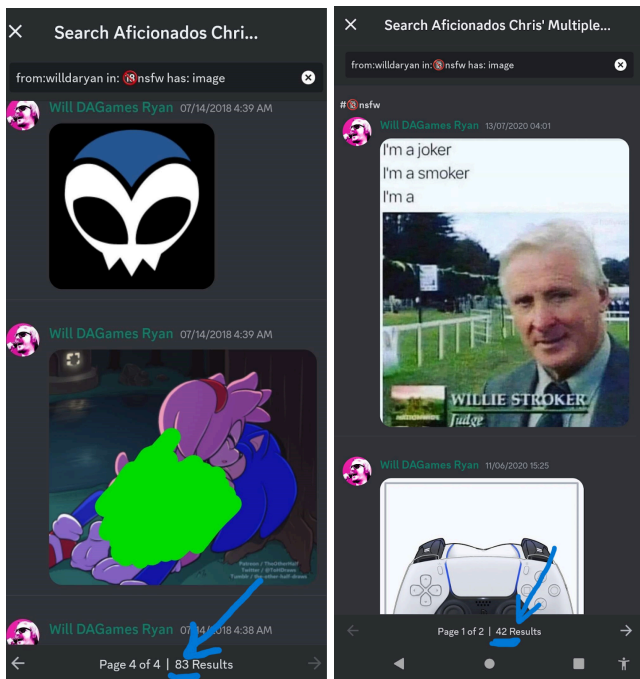

- They (the artist) is entirely Japanese and is difficult to find, however, the tags associated with their works include loli, and lolis with big chests, and general underaged content. The tags shown here show what he's known for:

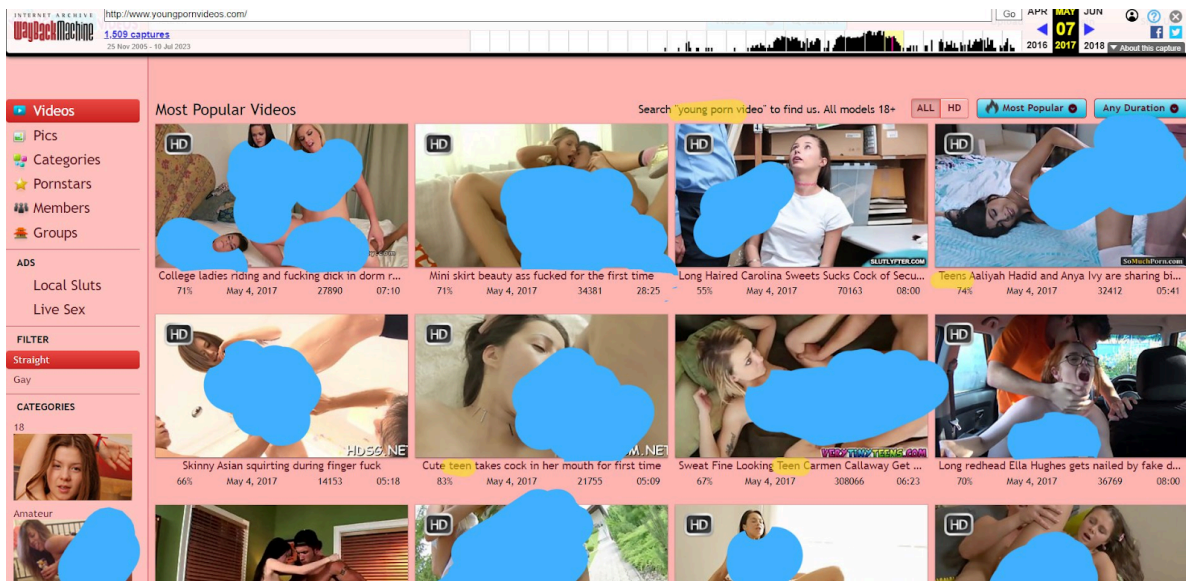

All screenshots are from AficionadosChris' server, but most have been deleted upon the release of the original document. Note the difference in page counts in these searches, the first having been taken before the doc came out while searching for evidence, and the second after:

There have been claims that the content was posted for a bot test in the DAGames server. This is not true, they were posted in the AficionadosChris server. More elaborate explanation in the frequently asked questions section.

- Will's search history revealing he watches porn of teen girls in a live stream clip (with Wayback Machine screenshot showing the site he looked up)

More details about the website in this document by @dagamesexposed

- Gross NSFW jokes (from AficionadosChris' and Lala's servers)

- A safety report of AficionadosChris' actions has been shared by ILoveKimPossibleAlot.

It contains a description of an incident containing issues of sexual objectification, sexual gratification involving another's property and sexual harassment. It is best if you read the report yourself here. Chris himself has since apologised to KP himself, but the DAGames HR team has been going after KP as can be seen in the report. In classic DA-HR team fashion, they have been threatening legal action with no proper basis to do so.

Chris also posted a statement himself, you can read it here. DAGames themselves have also posted a thread about it, announcing Chris is on indefinite leave.

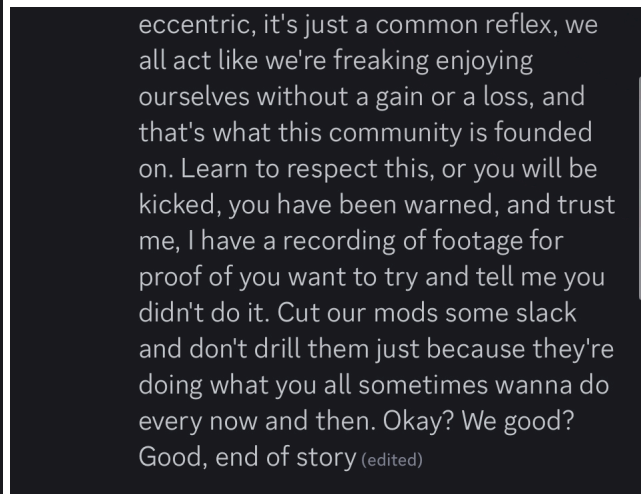

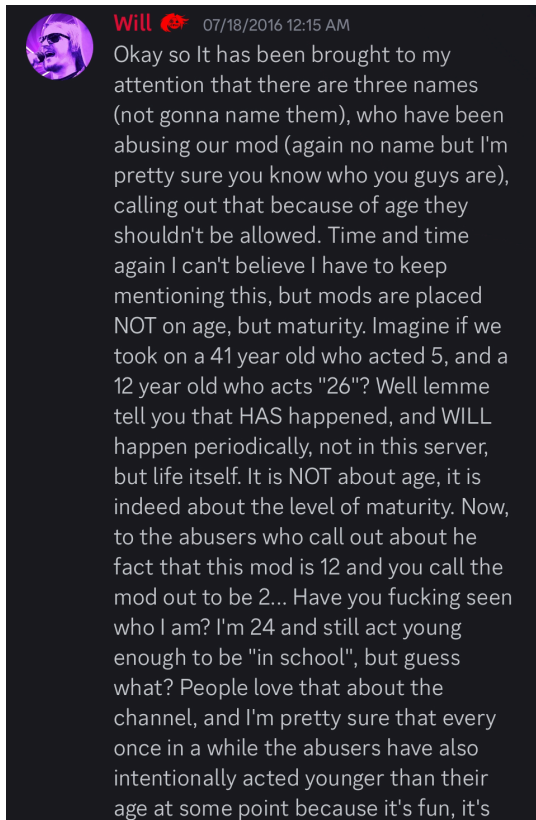

We understand that this is not directly connected to the matter in this document (the one you are currently reading) but it does show that problematic sexual stuff involving DA members being shoved under the rug is not a new thing and is not exclusive to the evidence shared in this document. There's also clear differences between what is being said here in a public statement as to what was said in the recording shared by KP which leads me to believe Chris and the team are lying just to save face. This is to be expected, but it's a bold move.

KP themselves have responded and seem to feel the same way. They also shared a list of contradictions between Chris' statement and the call they had earlier this year.

On march 19th DAGames uploaded the first non-music or promotional video since this announcement, featuring Chris in it, marking his return to the channel or showing he never really left. No explanation for this has been published.

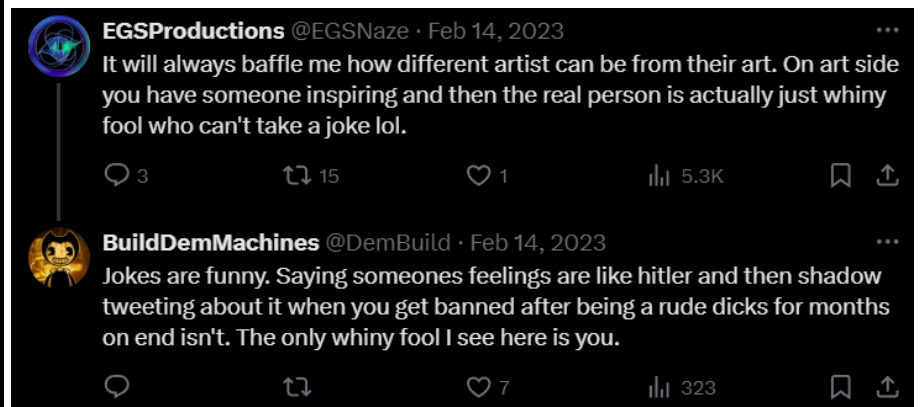

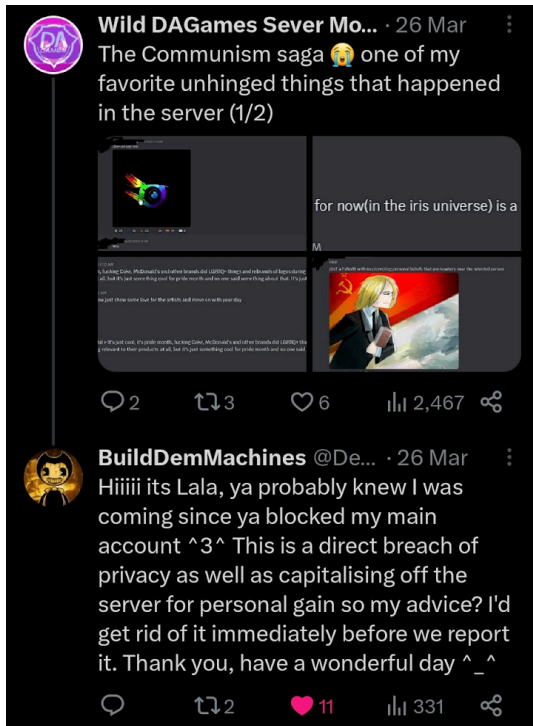

Other noteworthy things

- 11 year old was a mod, gets called mature by Will (video proof of this being Will can he found here). The server had an NSFW chat at the time, which got deleted years later. They're still in the discord server today.

- Lala stalking several people using multiple accounts (@DemBuild and @Chocolate5225 confirmed, potentially @NomenMono76533 and other accounts)

- Lala shows directly that it's her on @DemBuild using it to evade blocks

- On @Chocolate5225 it's harder to see considering she deleted the account, but she used it to spread a screenshot of me sharing a screenshot of someone saying the N word on 4chan to paint me in a bad light (the full explanation can be found here). She later admitted to having been caught.

- Pedophiles and groomers within the community never getting banned/victims not getting enough recognition.

○ Link to a thread exposing Markeidian, a groomer that used to be in the DA server, getting deleted by mods, and Will calling it “feeding attention to negative things” in a vent (screenshot taken on november 9th 2022).

○ Redstache Zach (creator of Lego DAGames and several covers) never got talked about by the team despite him getting arrested for possession of child pornography in 2020 being a commonly known fact within the community (full arrest report can be found here). He is currently out on probation (source).

- Syn of Blood/Bloodcage/Chida/Scar, another member of the DAGames mostly known for running an asset server, was also banned from the DAGames server due to pedophilic behaviour (evidence here, PROCEED WITH CAUTION) and also allegedly got arrested for possession of CSAM. The DA team banned him for this reason, but did not warn the community once again. Please take a look at the linked evidence for most of his online accounts.

- Moderators are censoring the audience and barring them from questioning the team and the situation regarding Will and Chris. This has happened on several occasions:
 - Asking questions about Chris's aforementioned return to the channel is met with threats of warnings and more by the mod team and is deemed drama-related (screenshots taken on march 19th).

- Asking questions about what to do with a video covering this document (we had no involvement making it) gets met with aggression from mods and friends of DA, threats of warnings and derailment of the conversation.

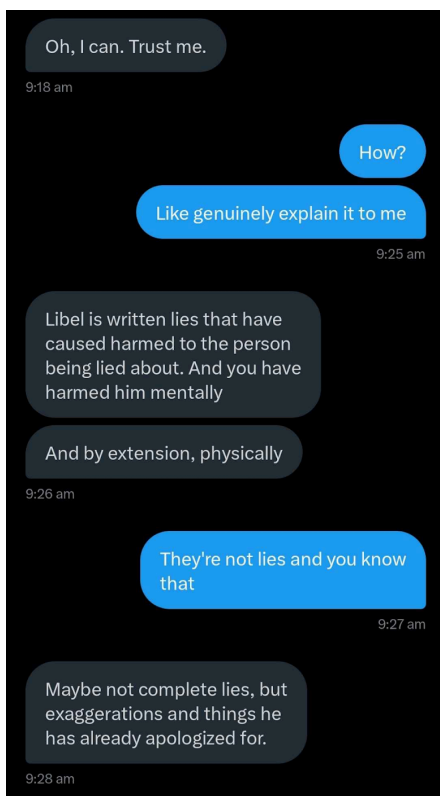

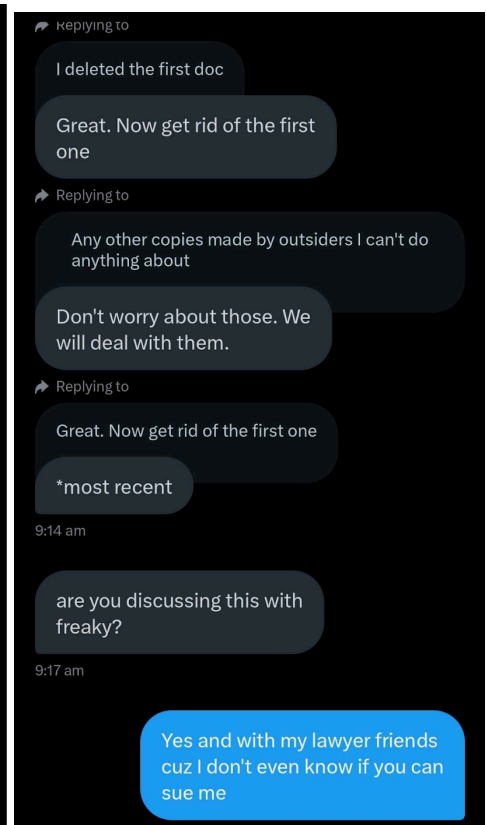

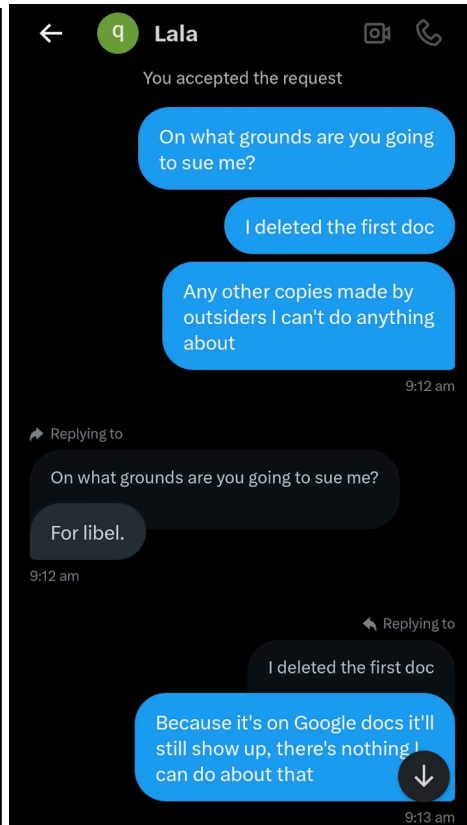

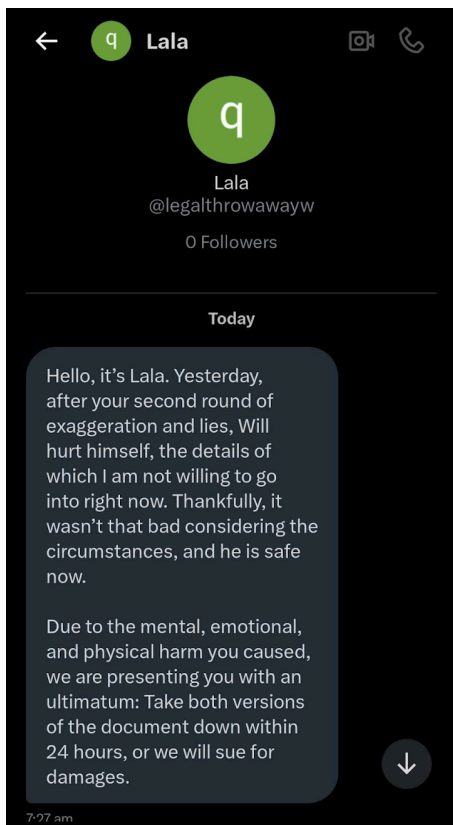

- Apparently the subreddit has been censoring or blacklisting several words, including but not limited to “evidence” and “11” as can be seen here. This means posts including these words can’t be posted unless you work around these censors.

Censoring

Several people have approached us in regards to censoring. We're working on making this happen for people who have either distanced themselves or who did nothing wrong. Current mods, friends and masters will not be censored, but regular members have been censored in the first half.

Lala? threatening to sue

Someone pretending to be Lala (which in turn could actually be Lala but we'll never know) acted like they were going to sue us, so the document was momentarily taken down. When they revealed they weren't Lala it was reuploaded. Here's the conversation, the name they gave us after the fact has been censored because we suspect they're lying about that too. Note that the account might be deactivated when you try to find it.

Stop skirting around the issue here. If the docs are still up, I'm suing. And even if you win, you don't want to waste the time and money on legal expenses, right?

9:35 am

Show me the apology, then we'll talk further

9:35 am

I have the money to handle this, don't worry

9:38 am

Okay

I will see you, then.

9:38 am

Just show me the apology because that will genuinely change everything

I have never seen it

If it's real we'll at the very least add it to the doc and remove the evidence it apologises for

9:39 am

Why are you beating dead horses? Will has obviously said and done bad things, but they are not relevant anymore

Let it go

And then we can all be happy

Surely this is mentally draining for you, no?

9:41 am

Show me the apology

If you had anything you surely would've shown it by now right

9:42 am

You could be using this time contributing to society, but you are wasting it trying to take down a mentally ill man who makes like 1k views per video

9:43 am

And you're defending that man with no proof

9:43 am

I am his friend, unlike you I know him behind the cameras and social media posts.

9:43 am

Then show me what you have

Show the apology

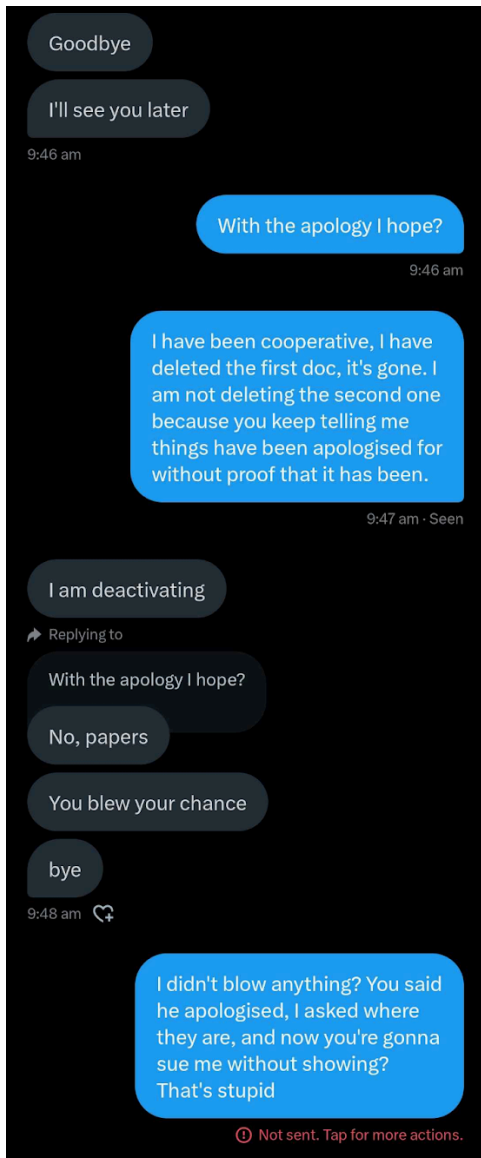

9:44 am

Just take it down

9:45 am

Not without proof

9:45 am

KP has created a channel for questions about the situation in their server, you can find it [removed] Please read the server rules before chatting. We no longer work with KP because he mishandling of the information regarding DAGames and Saberspark.

Videos covering the doc

Parlo has made a youtube video covering a big part of the document, you can watch it here. Our involvement in the creation of it was limited to providing information and clarifying things, but we still appreciate it being made.

Will changing his discord user and removing his connections from his discord account

As of April 13th 2025 Will has seemingly removed all his connections from his discord account and changed his username from “willdaryan” to “willdaryanonline”. We don’t know exactly why he has done this, but it looks like he is trying to remove evidence that the account in our evidence is his. Most recordings use his connections to verify it being his. See his account below:

Document being taken down

Due to reports (presumably from DA fans or even the DA team) the document got taken down. Because of this some links to this document online might not work. You are currently reading: Copy 2.

Ex-moderator Mars posted a statement

Mars, who was a moderator for DAGames for the better half of 9 years, and since left back in October of 2024 and chose to cut contact for personal reasons, has posted a statement on BlueSky in light of the allegations. You can read it here, but please do note that they don’t want anything to do with the situation further.

Frequently asked question/Q&A

In this section we will try to answer any questions people might have about the situation, about the doc, or any other related things. You can submit your question in the form, please make sure to check if your question hasn't been answered already.

Do you have proof the loli was not just a bot test?

The alleged bot test took place in the DAGames server's NSFW chat which has been deleted for a long time. The loli was posted in AficionadosChris' server, which did not have any bots in it (aside from a Mee6 set up for uploads). All of the screenshots were taken in 2023, the test chat (if there ever was one) would probably be deleted way before then and would likely not even be public to regular members. Neither server ever had any bots aside from generic discord bots like a music bot and a notification bot. Several ex-moderators have also confirmed this, one of them let me add their confirmation if they were made anonymous:

What about this video where Will apologises?

It is not an apology, he doesn't address anything directly and saying that those years were a haze is not an apology.

Where was the loli posted?

The loli found was posted in AficionadosChirs's server, the nsfw chat in the DA server was deleted long before we actively started looking. There have been instances in the DA server that look like NSFW was posted outside of that chat and then deleted, but we don't have solid evidence of this as of right now.

Anonymous stories

Note: because these stories are anonymous, they likely won't include direct evidence and/or are subjective most of the time.

Story 1

"Back in late 2018, i was in a voice chat with Chris, Will and one other person who i cannot remember, they were another fan so it isn't very relevant who they were. I was 14 at the time. I do not remember how the conversation got to this point, but at one point Chris made a joke about me being into bestiality. Specifically using the term "bestiality" which I didn't understand at the time. I simply responded being confused about the joke and Chris seemed to find that funny. My camera was on (they were using a 3rd party tool to have cameras with voice chats at the time) and I had met Will sometime before to voice chat in person. They had to have known I was underaged. This by itself is not that awful. Simply weird. But together with everything else that has happened and what these people have done. I think it's important to share as it shows a pattern of the people in and around DAGames creating an unsafe environment."

"The DA team has been keeping an emotionally unstable abuser in their circle. They go under the username Glitchybits/Fictotides, their real name is Tia.

It's never been publicly known outside of servers that she used to be involved in (several groups cut her off after seeing/finding out about her toxic behavior), but she has a known history of mentally unstable behavior, publicly sharing or posting violent thoughts, and several other things. From what I've been told by some parties who were formerly close to the DA team, and those who were impacted by Glitchy's abuse, most of the DA team have been aware of this since around August of 2022, even witnessed some of their antagonistic behavior, and have done nothing about it. She was a mod in Aficionados discord server and during a huge fallout she had with some people in another server (some of those people being in Aficionados server at the time), she used her powers to hang people up or delete their messages on the server. Aficionado had checked the audit logs and confirmed it was her doing it, and the most he did was temporarily revoke her mod status, and didn't do anything else to punish her after she confirmed to him that she was doing it in DM's. During another call in his server, there was a person she was having very negative feelings towards, and during a group watch session, Tia proceeded to hang this person up multiple times, causing a borderline anxiety attack from this person who went to Aficionado about this (who witnessed her doing this), in which he proceeded to do nothing about it after he said he'd "handle it."

Everything she was doing outside the server was treated as someone else's problem, even if this abusive behavior was brought to Chris or another DA mod. She had threatened a couple people I have been in contact with, one of the reasons being because they were getting more attention than her in calls or in art chats. Tia would complain behind peoples backs either in call, or in DM's about how they were more attractive than them, and would get visibly pissed off in calls when certain people would get compliments or more attention than her. I have also been told of an instance where she was in a server,

I also learned thanks to a friend in another server that she was in that she had a massive blow up at Aficionado for having some people she abused in the server, and treating it like they're spying on her (I know that she's talking about Aficionado here cause the timeline perfectly adds up and I confirmed it with a friend that they were randomly removed from his server a day after this rant was posted)

-plop- I'm scared of myself now XTD

10/26/2019 9:15 AM

You should be.

I was someone who was close with Aficionado and some of the DA circle for about 8 years. I regrettably don't recall being witness to a majority of the stuff in the document, and I never really used the DA fan server. I think I was there for a period, but I left maybe a month or so in cause I don't really like being in servers with a large group of people. I was primarily in the Aficionado private server.

In the last 3 or 4 years of my friendship with them, I grew distant from the circle and went off to do my own things, IRL projects, other friend circles, things of that nature.

I do recall a few things that in hindsight, were really fucked up or abusive in that circle or just with Aficionado.

There were dark or fucked up jokes that I would always reason as "Well they just have a dark sense of humor." When I think back on them I don't know how I kept staying in there for so long, or how I thought certain things they did were okay, I guess I was so desperate to have a friend circle at the time that I stayed with it and desensitized myself into thinking these things were okay.

Like I said before, if you did something really shitty, most of the times he wouldn't care cause it "Didn't break my servers rules."

I distinctly remember an instance around 2020 where in a call, a friend was going off on an anti-vax tirade and saying how much they don't trust the vaccine, and they tried to prove them wrong but they kept pushing weird anti-vax beliefs. They still kept them in the server after that which I thought was highly questionable.

I don't remember the name but I remember Aficionado telling me this story back several years ago of a comic series that I don't recall if he actually made, or it was an idea he had floating around in his head. It was about a serial killer or something like that where he had schizophrenia and the only way he could stop the voices was to sexually assault children, he was in his mid 20s when he told me about this. There was some attack on titan browser game where you could play as the titans or as the main characters, don't know if it still exists anymore but I remember a running gag that Will would do was he would yell "Sodomy" every time the titan would jump."
